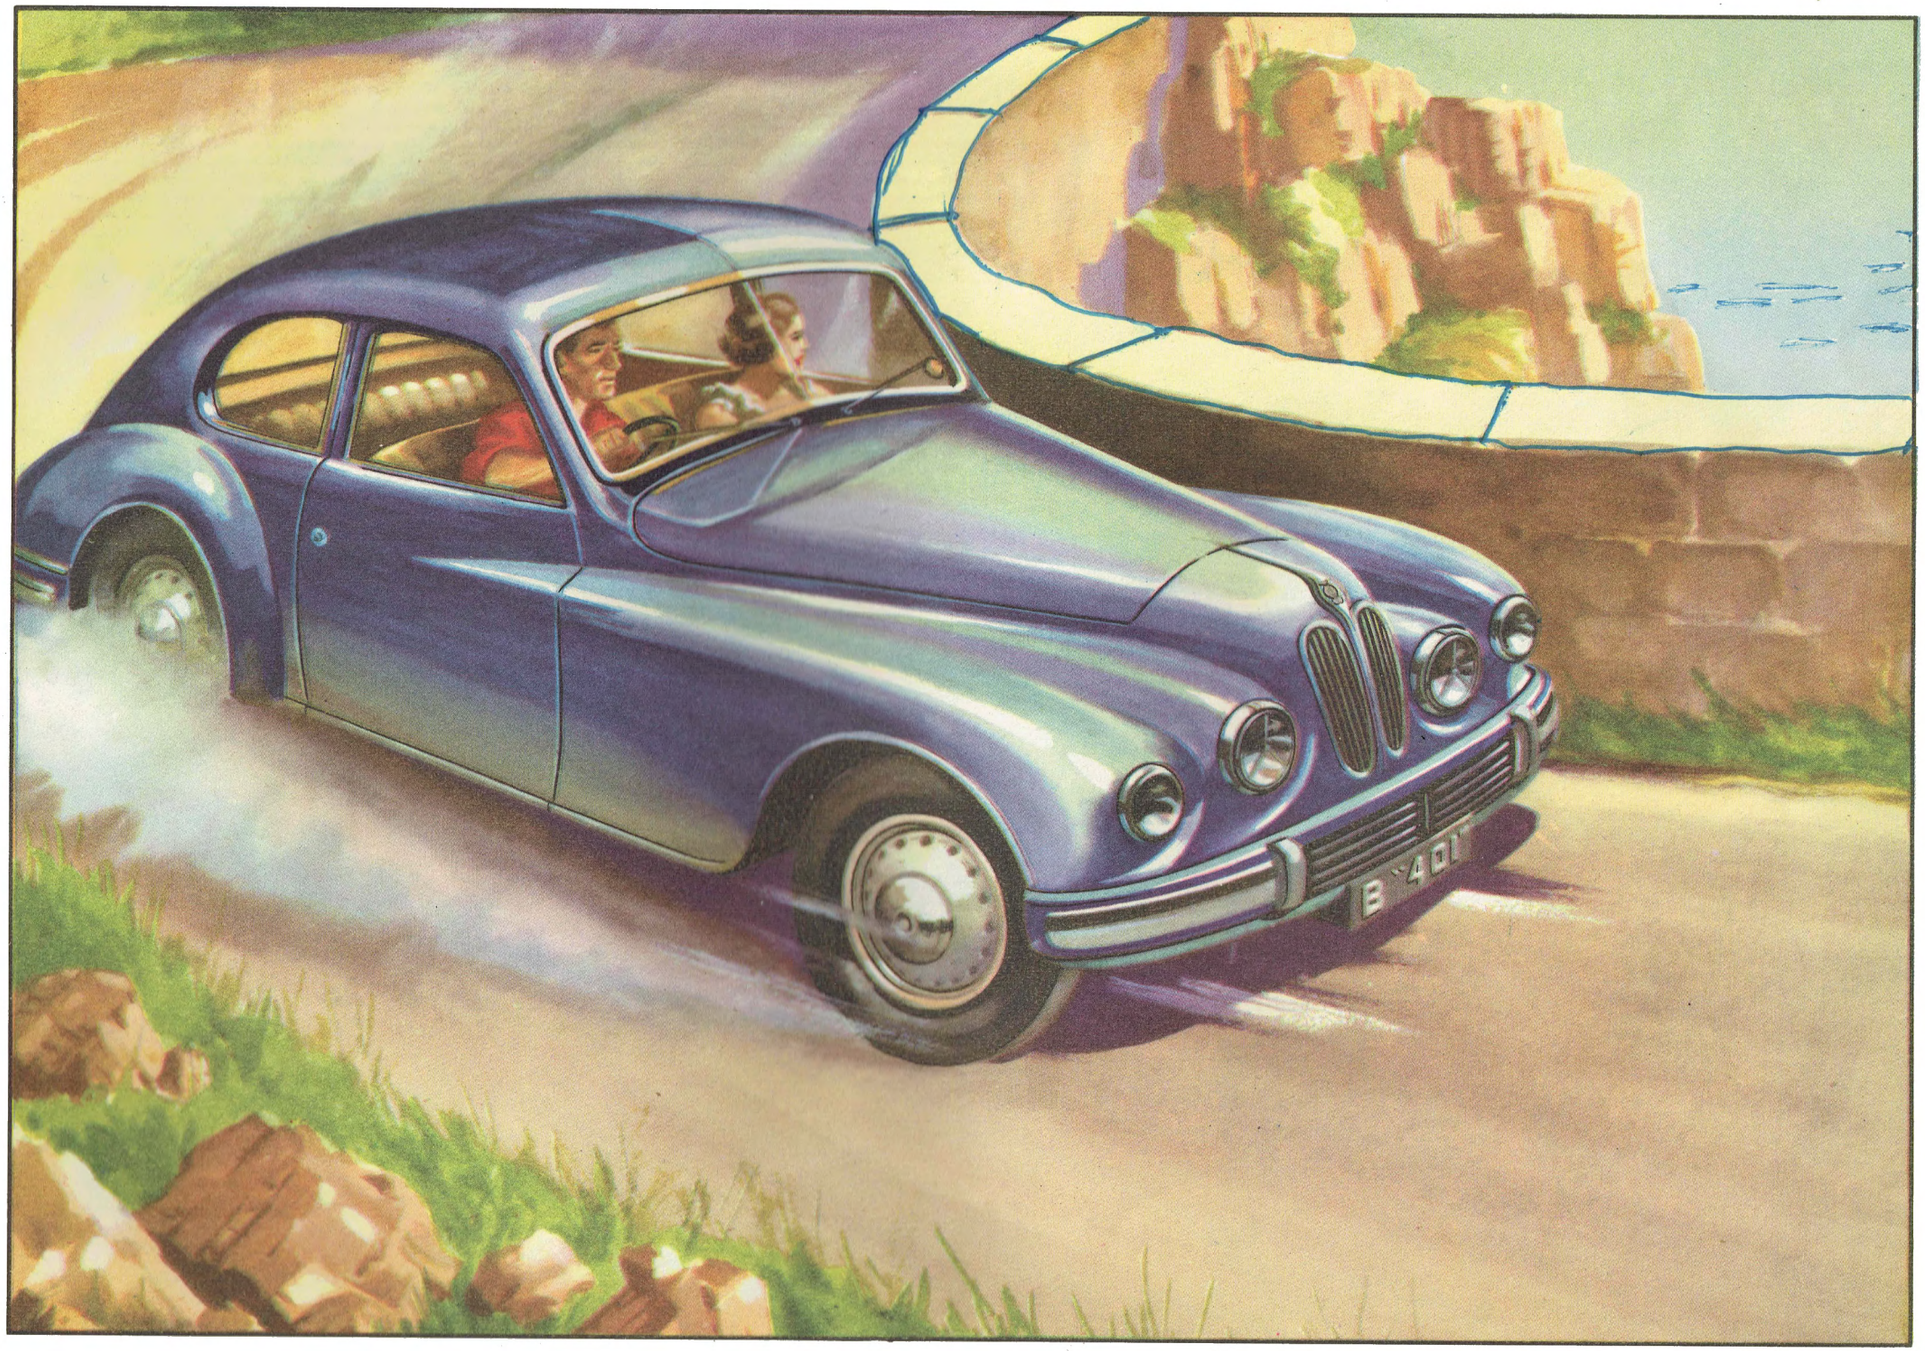
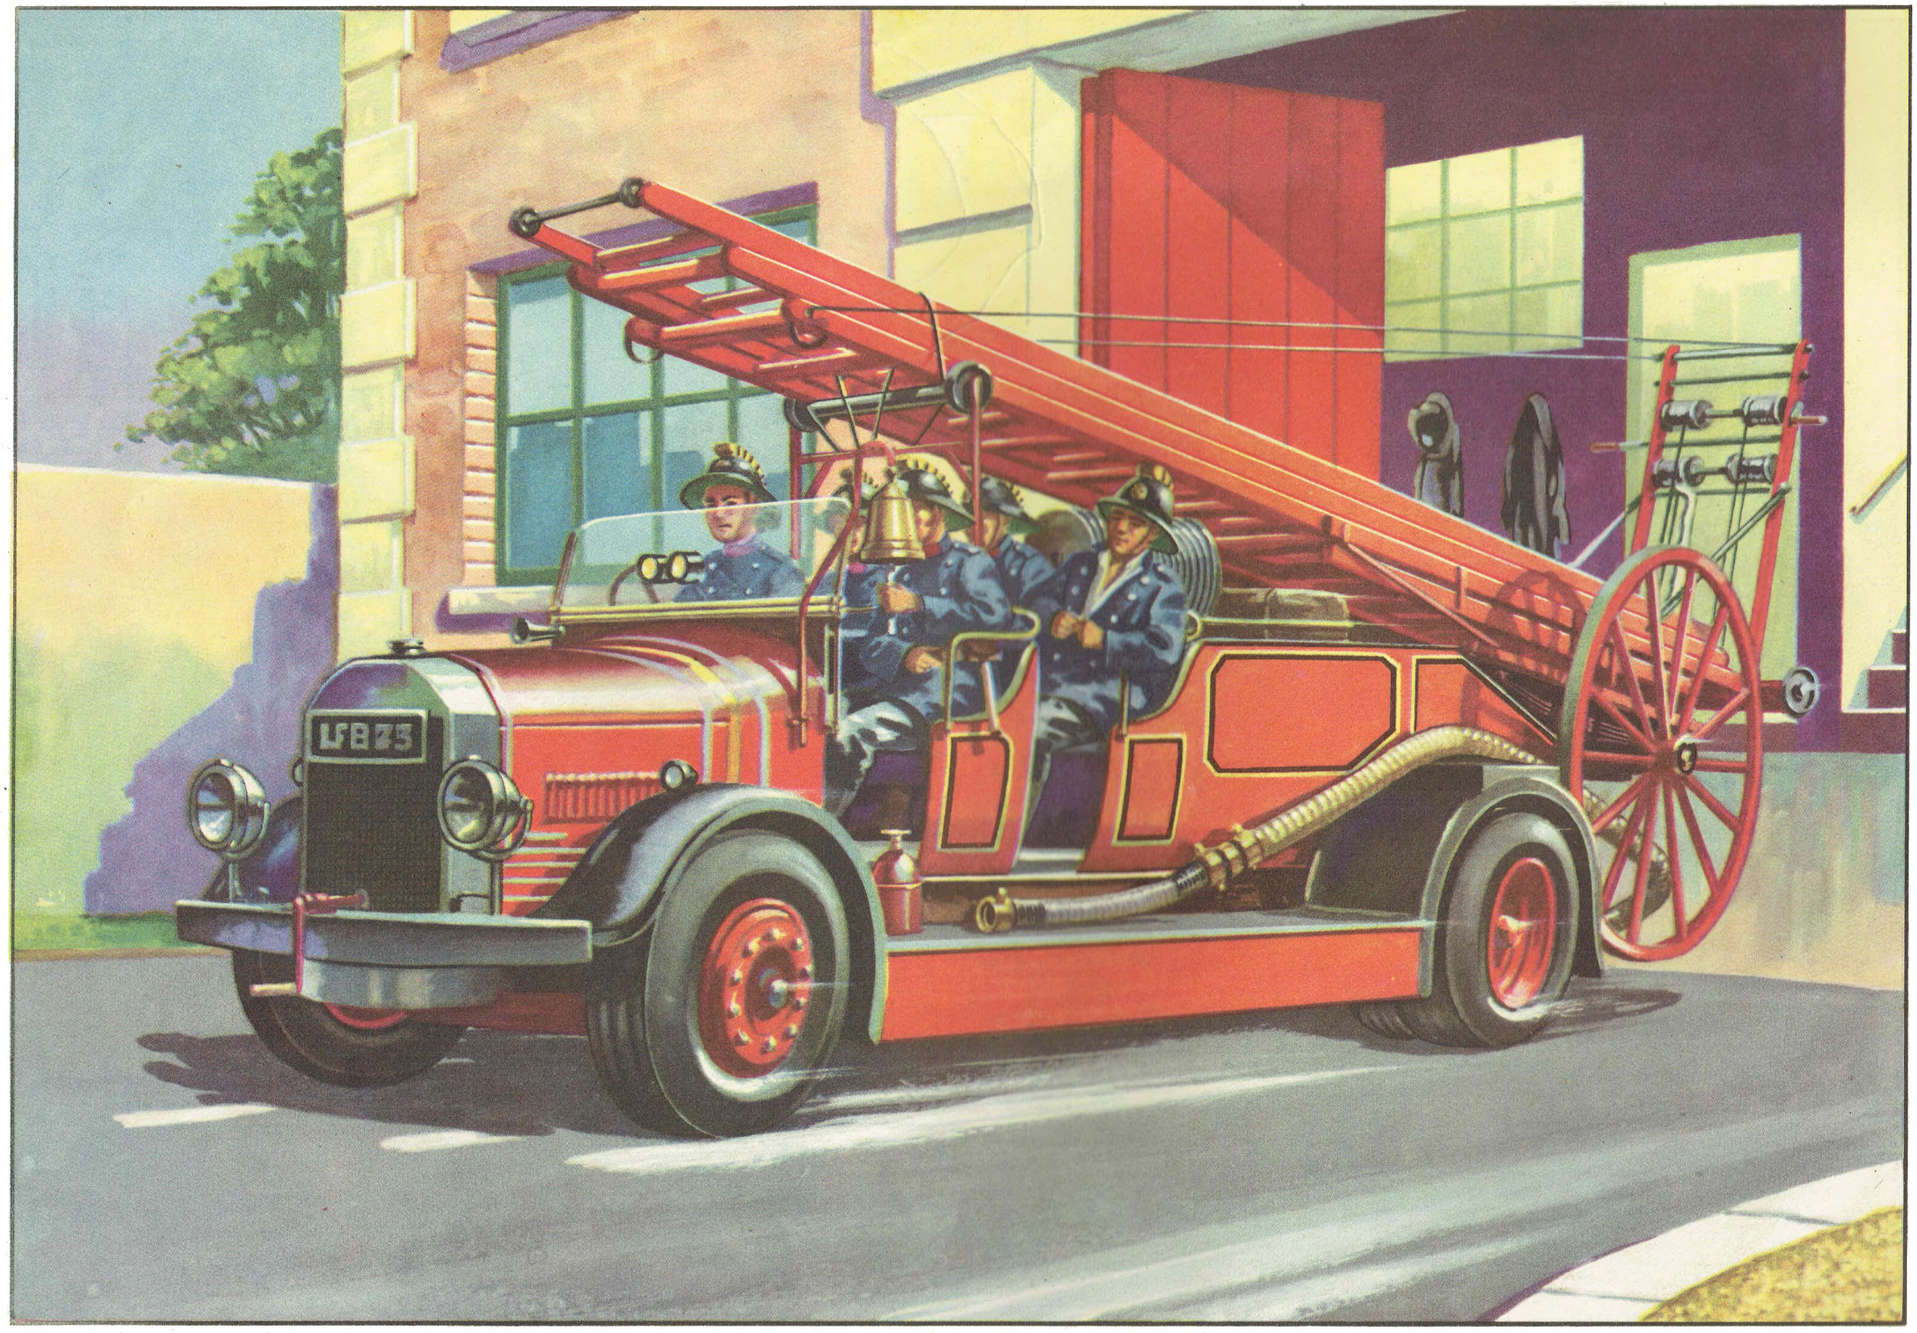
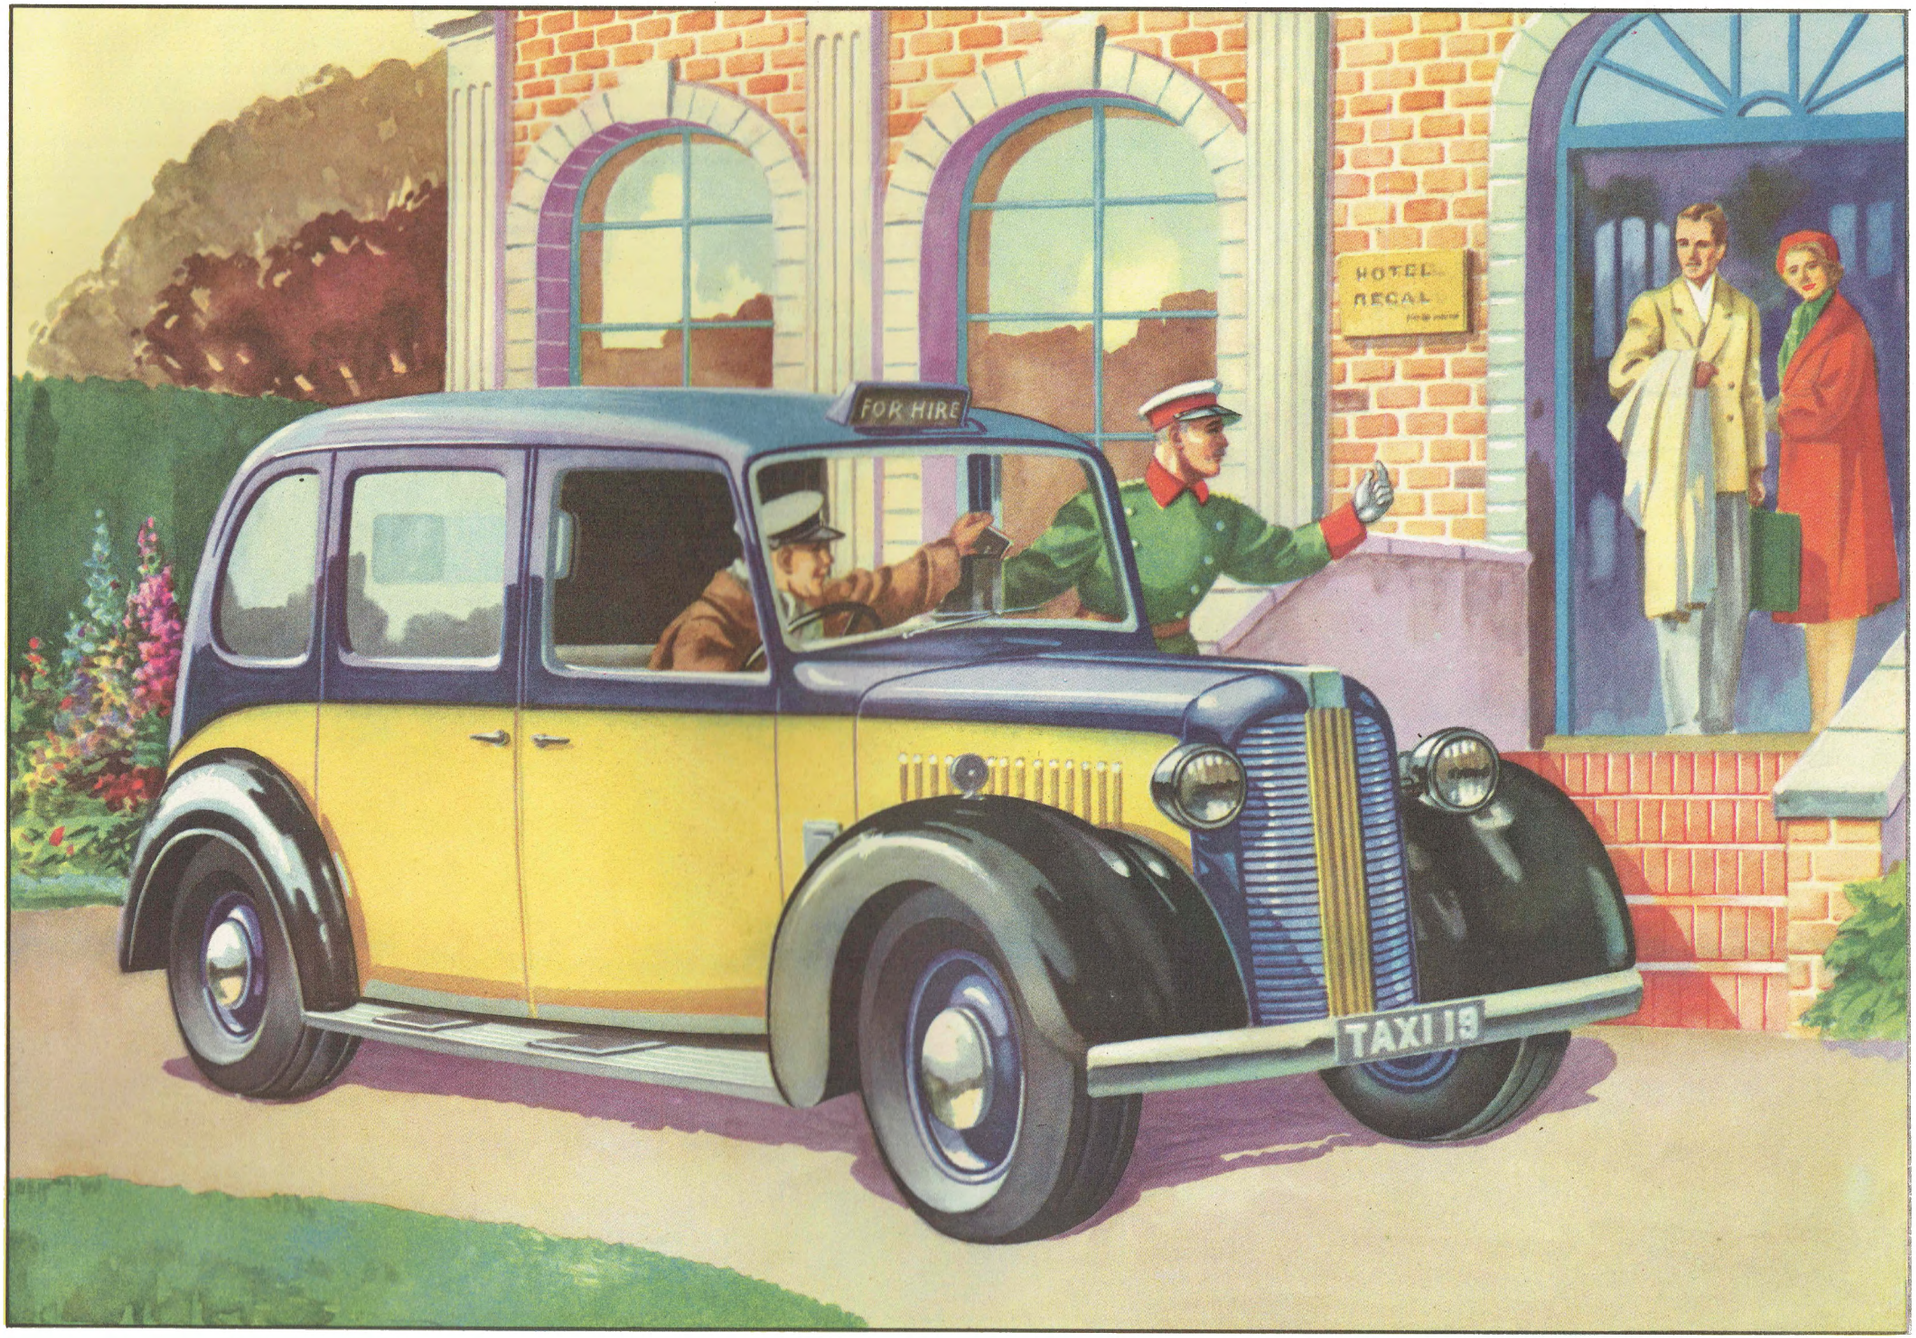
Of all the cars, if you had your choice,
We are sure you'd choose a fine Rolls-Royce.



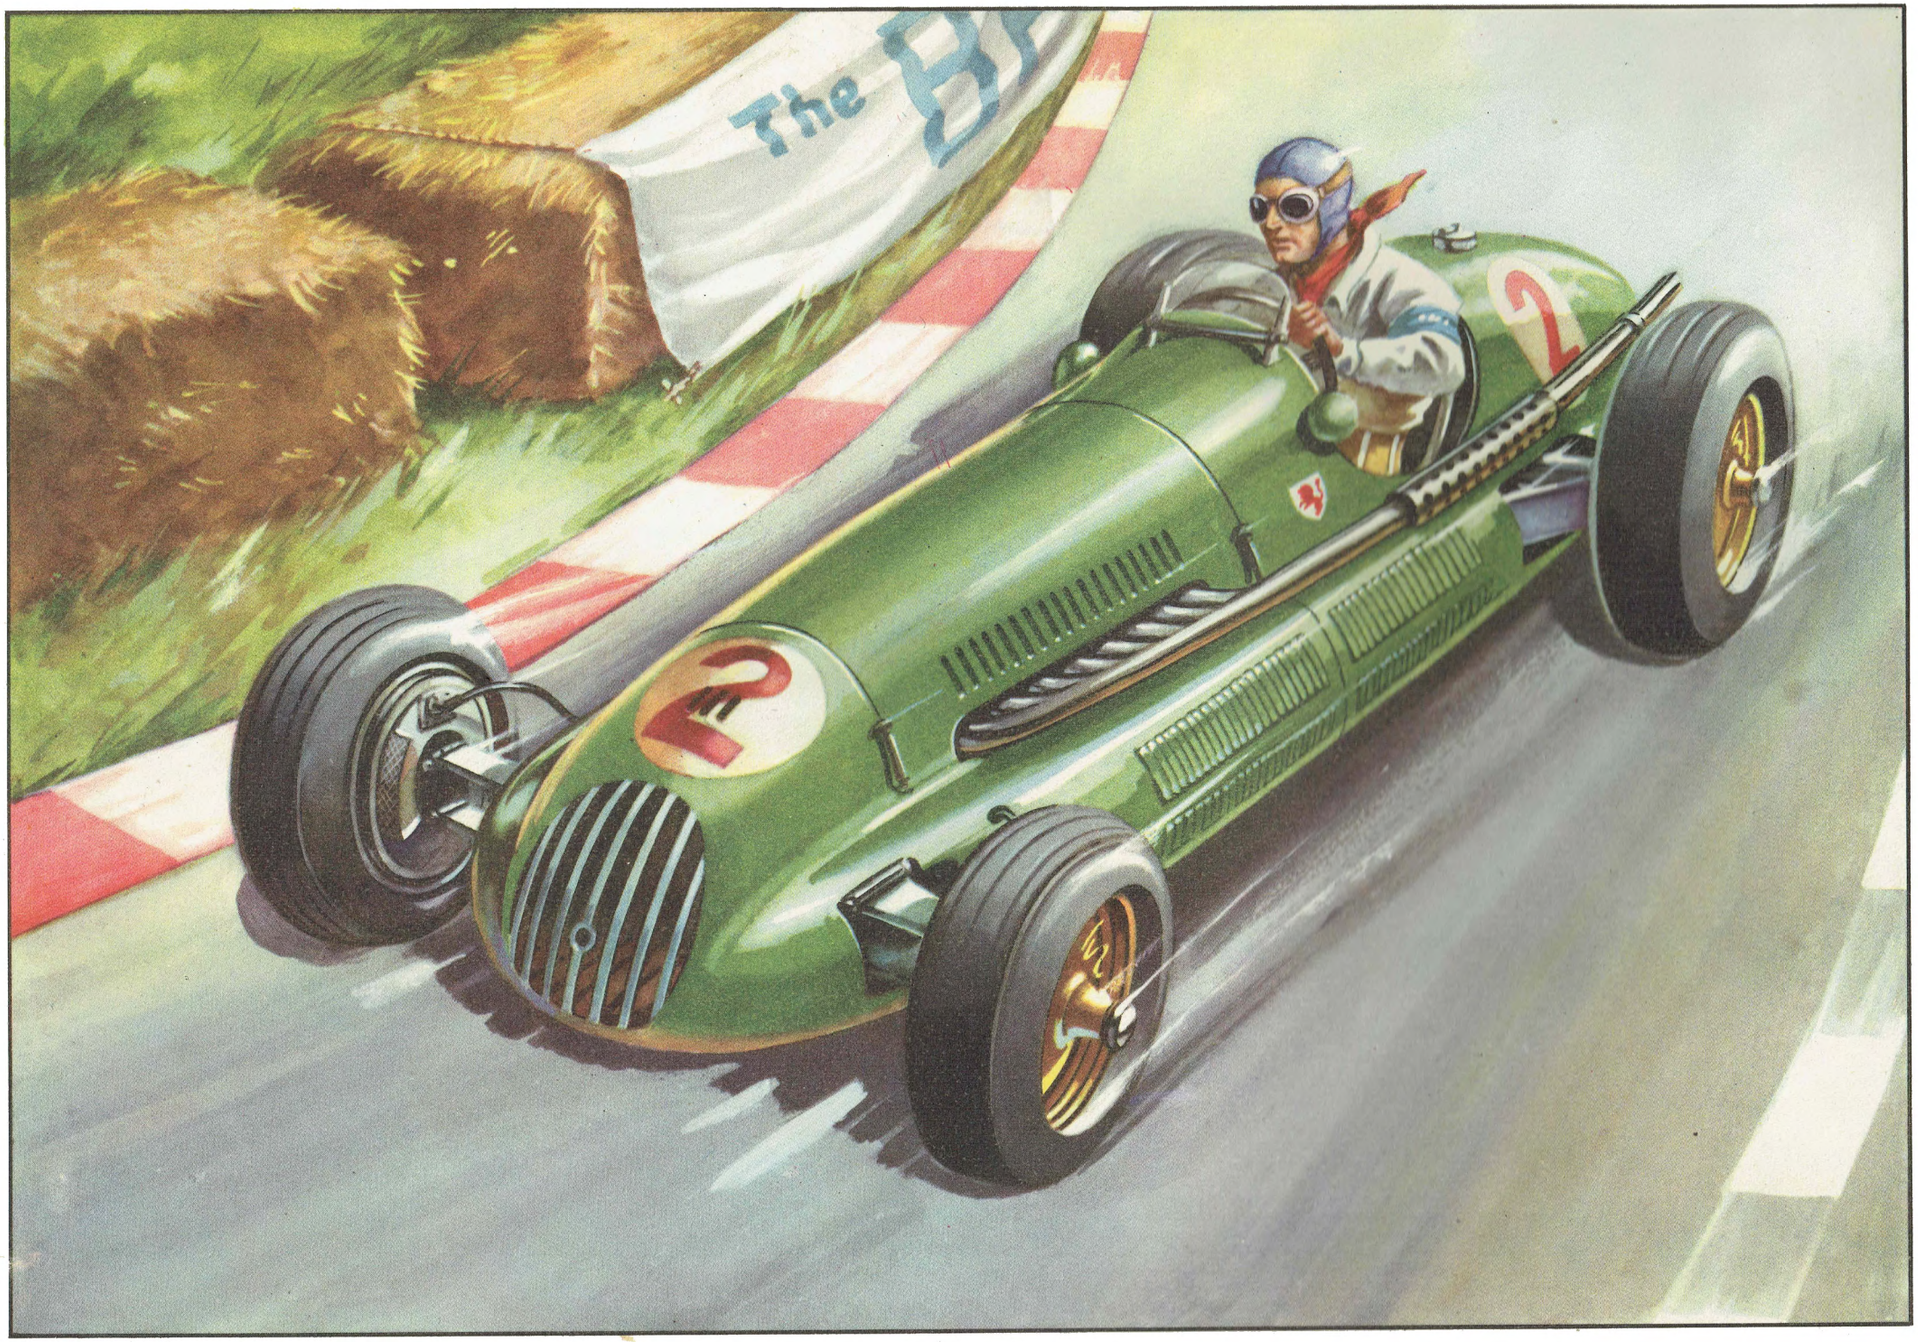
This Bristol car, which is fast and new,
Is grand for seeing the seaside view.



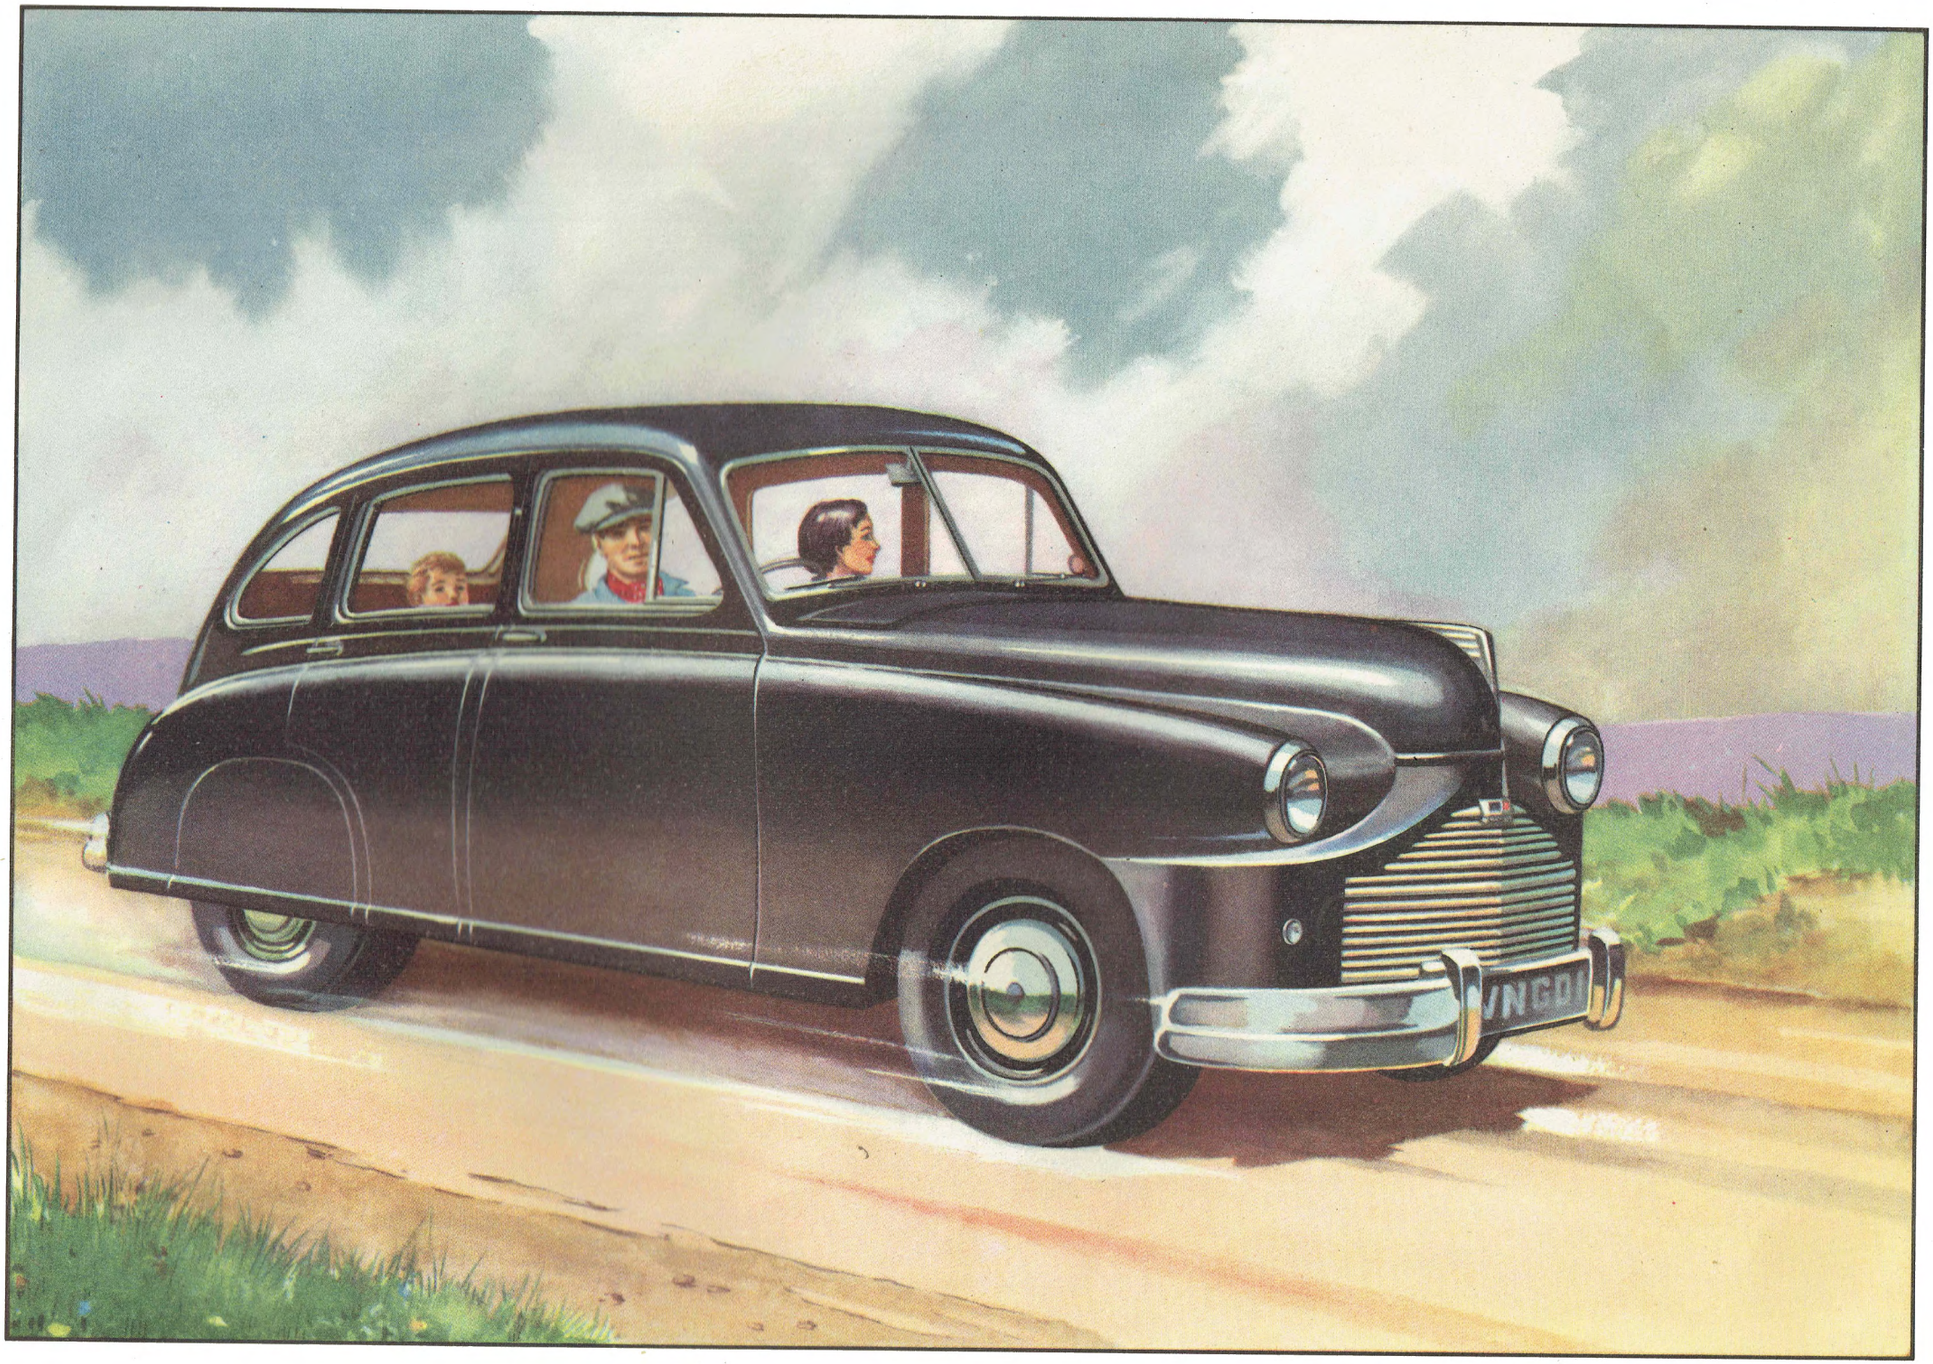
The bell clangs out as the firemen speed,
To put out a fire with their motor "steed".



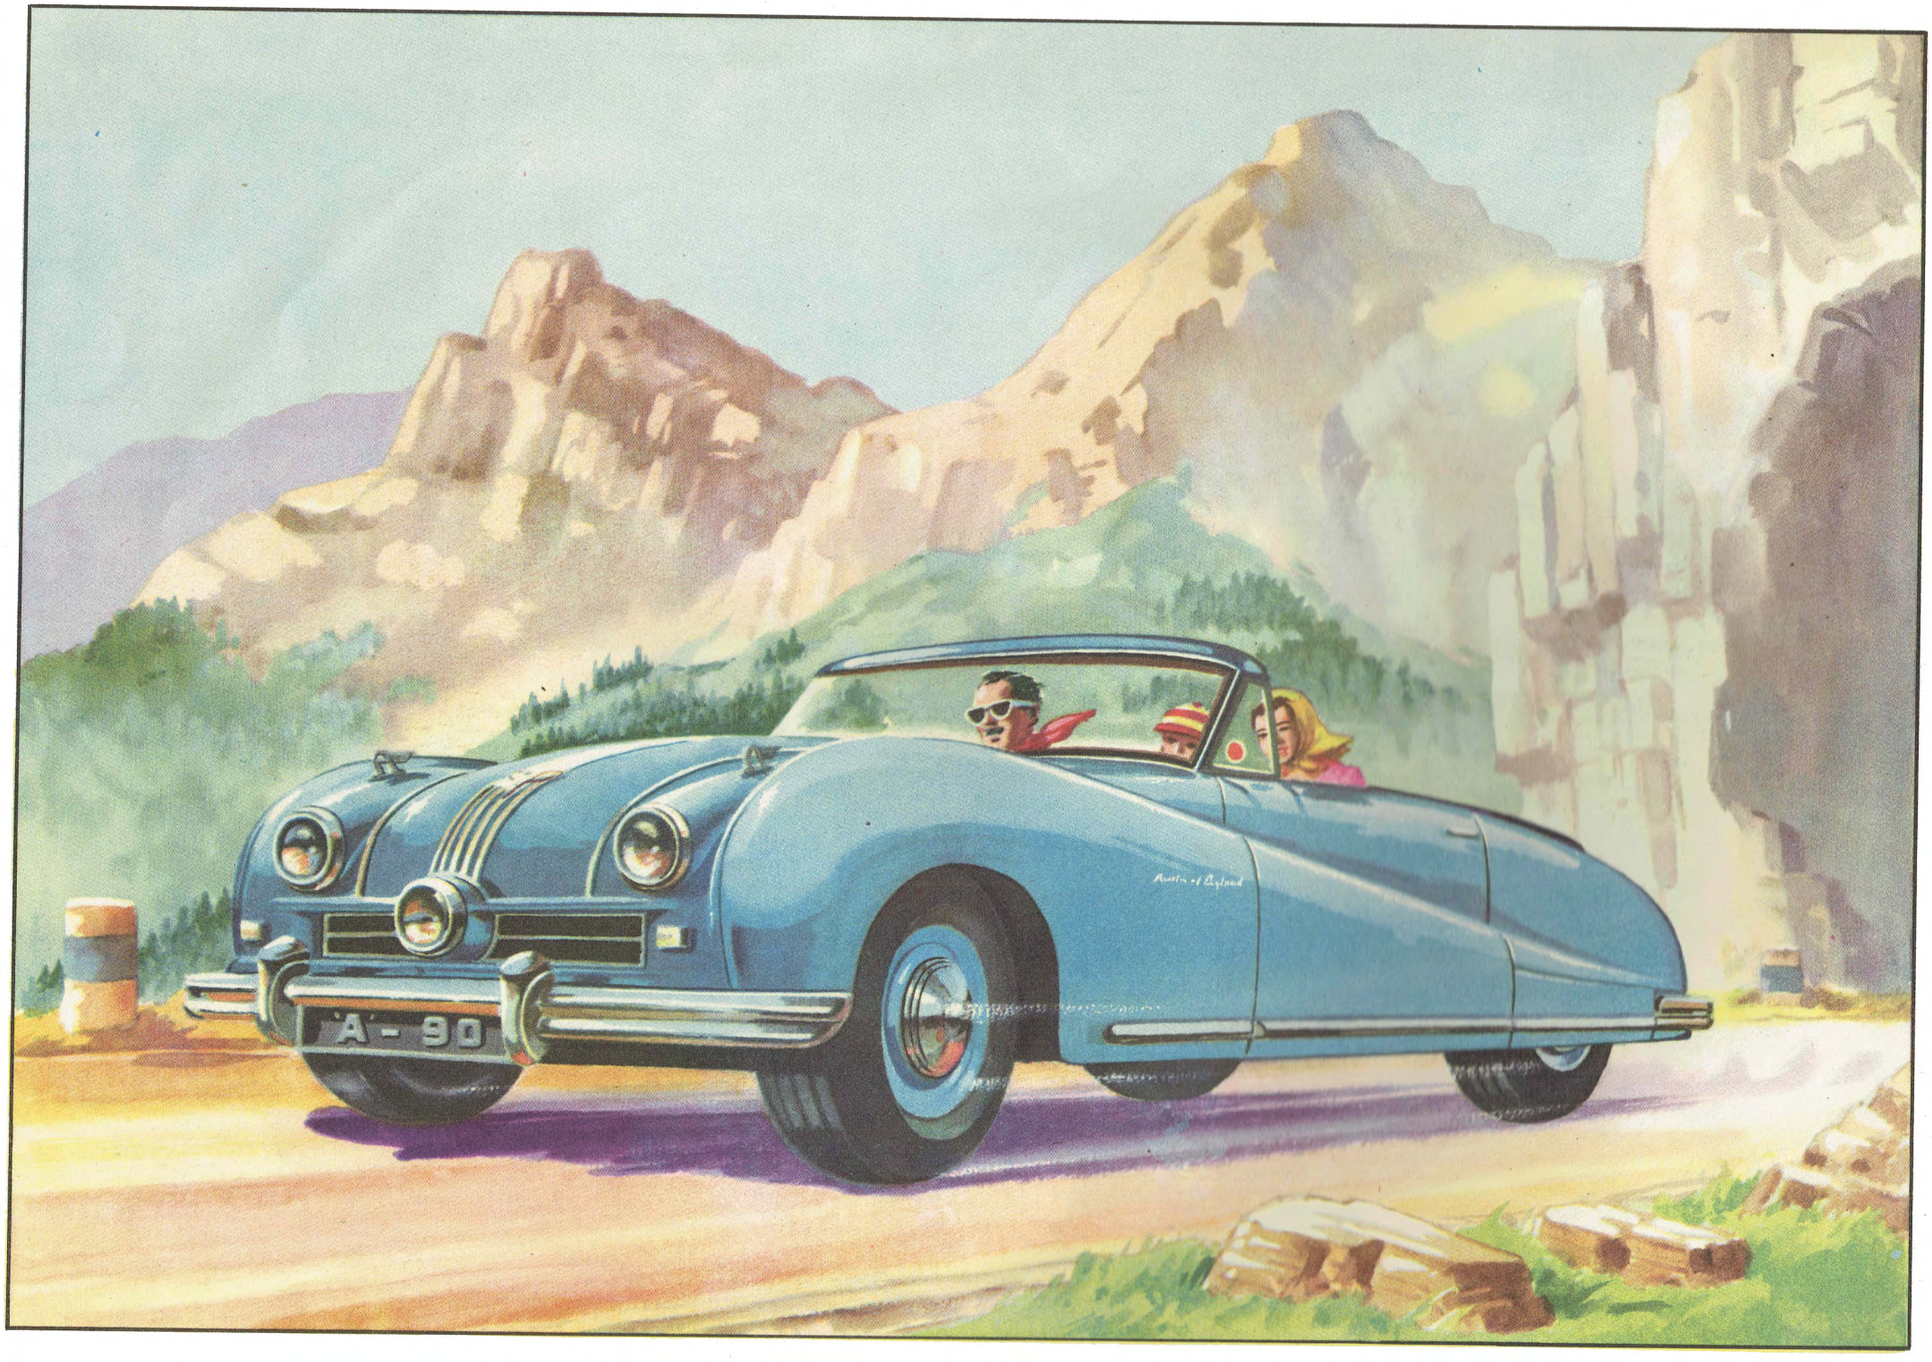
When it is time to go home again,
The taxi will take you to the train.



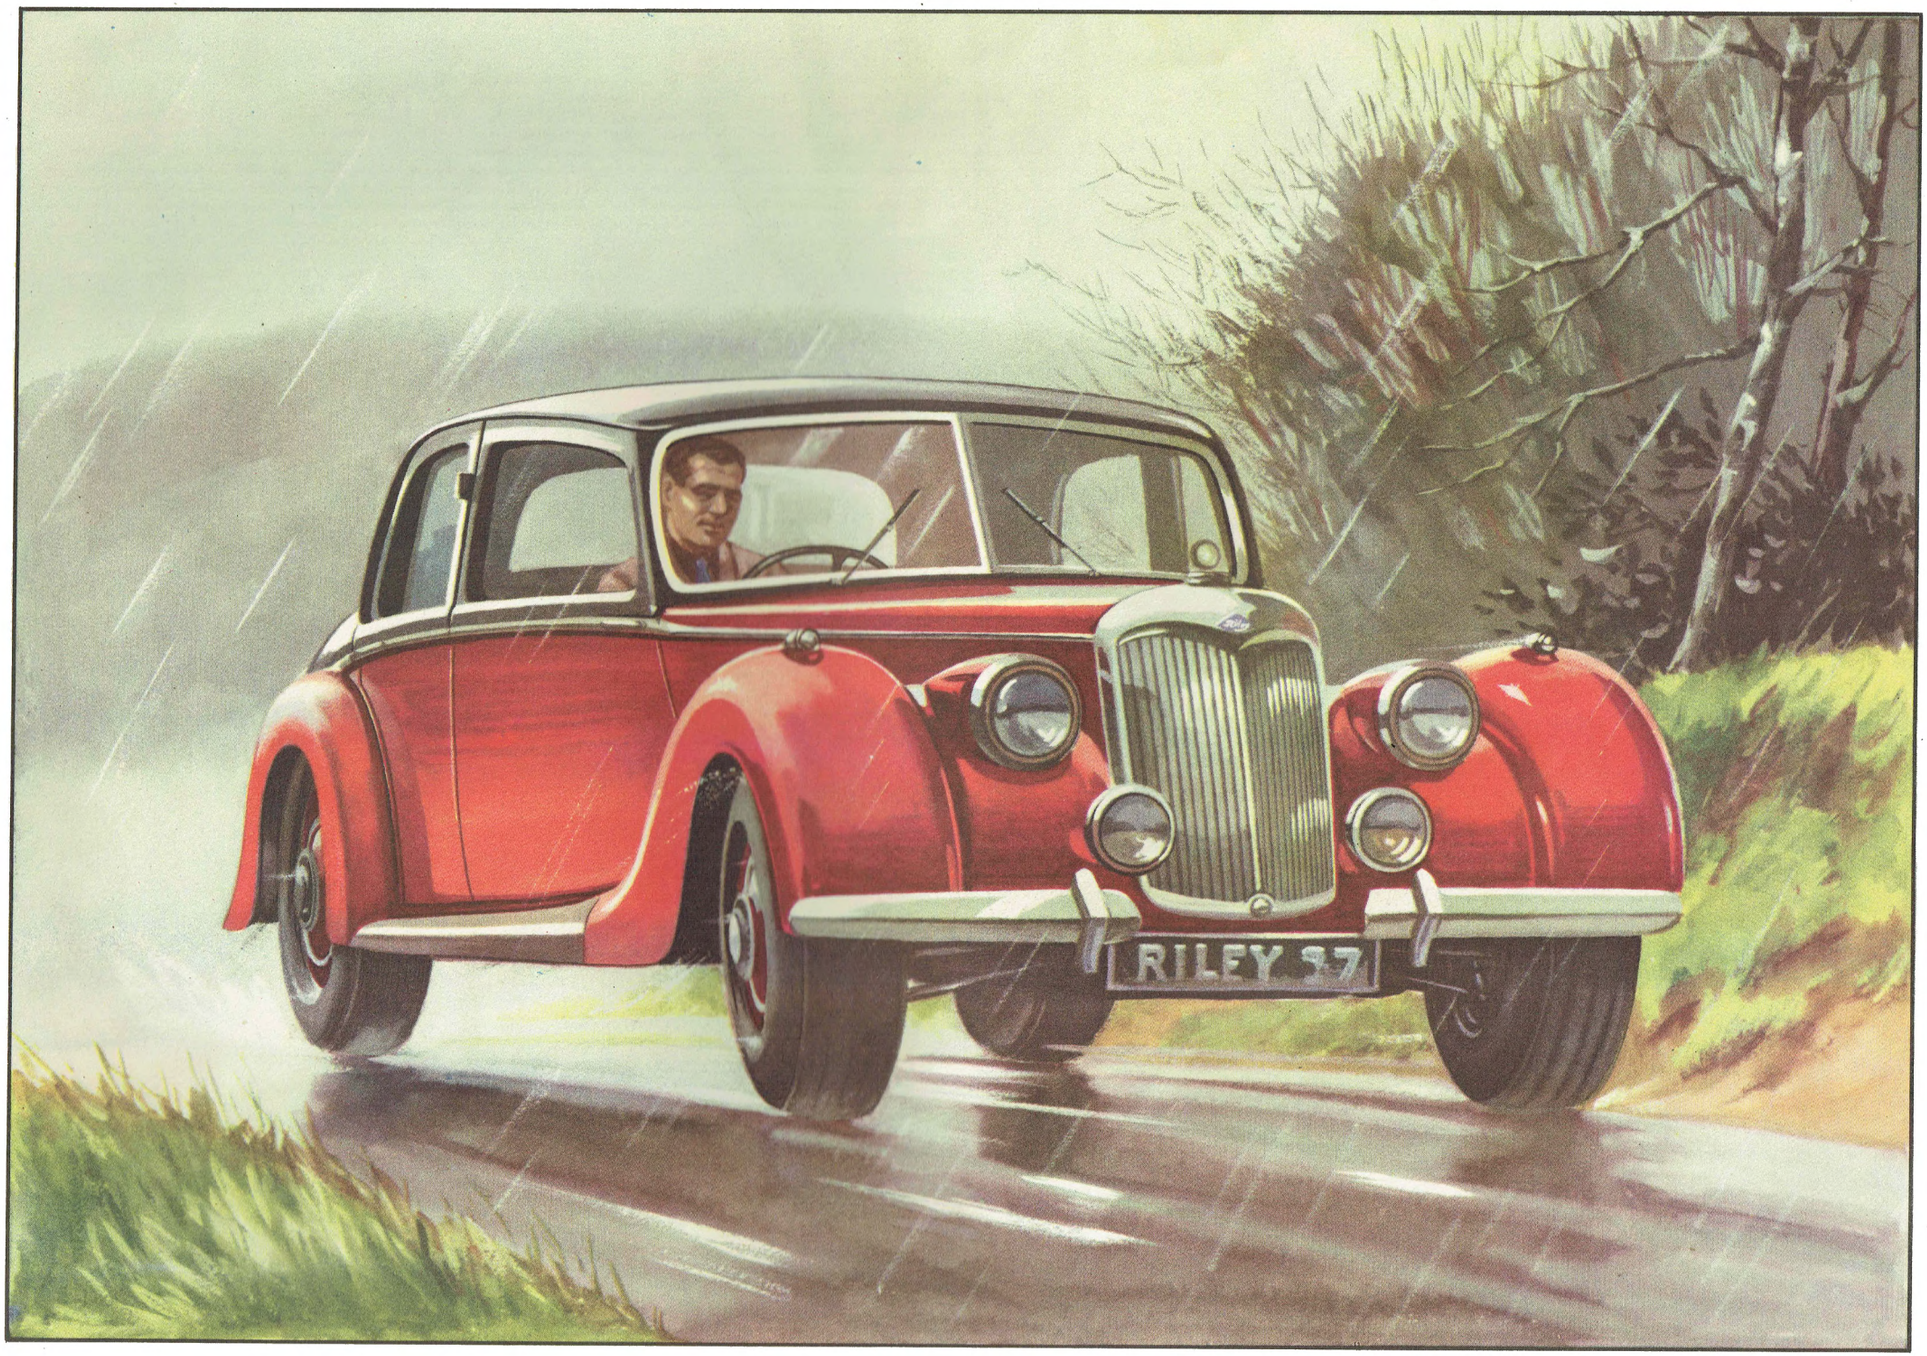
Down the track, painted vivid green,
This English racing car is seen.



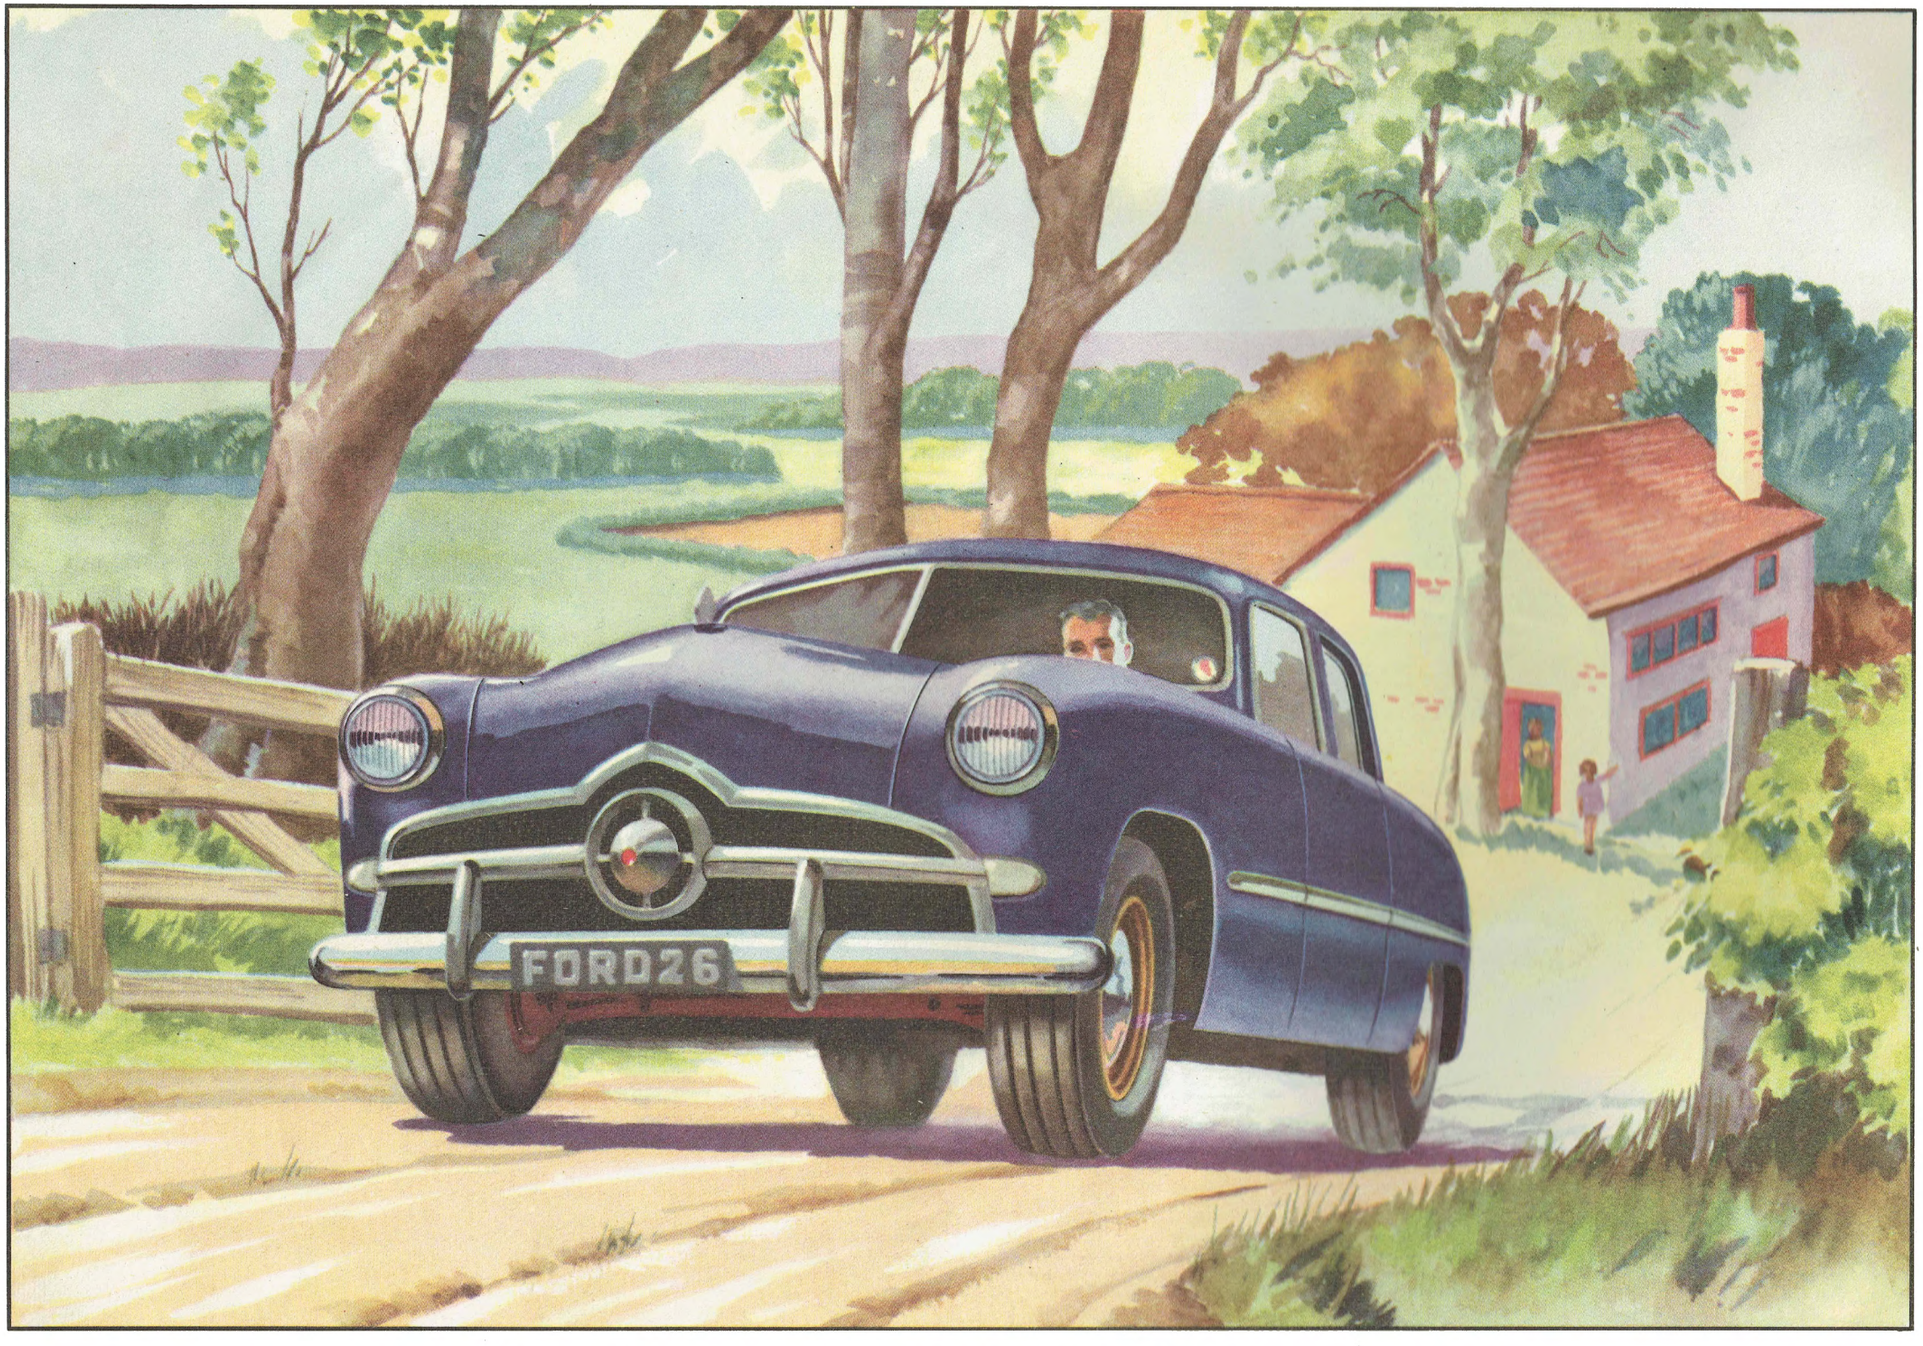
The family travels fast and far,
In this fine Standard "Vanguard" car.



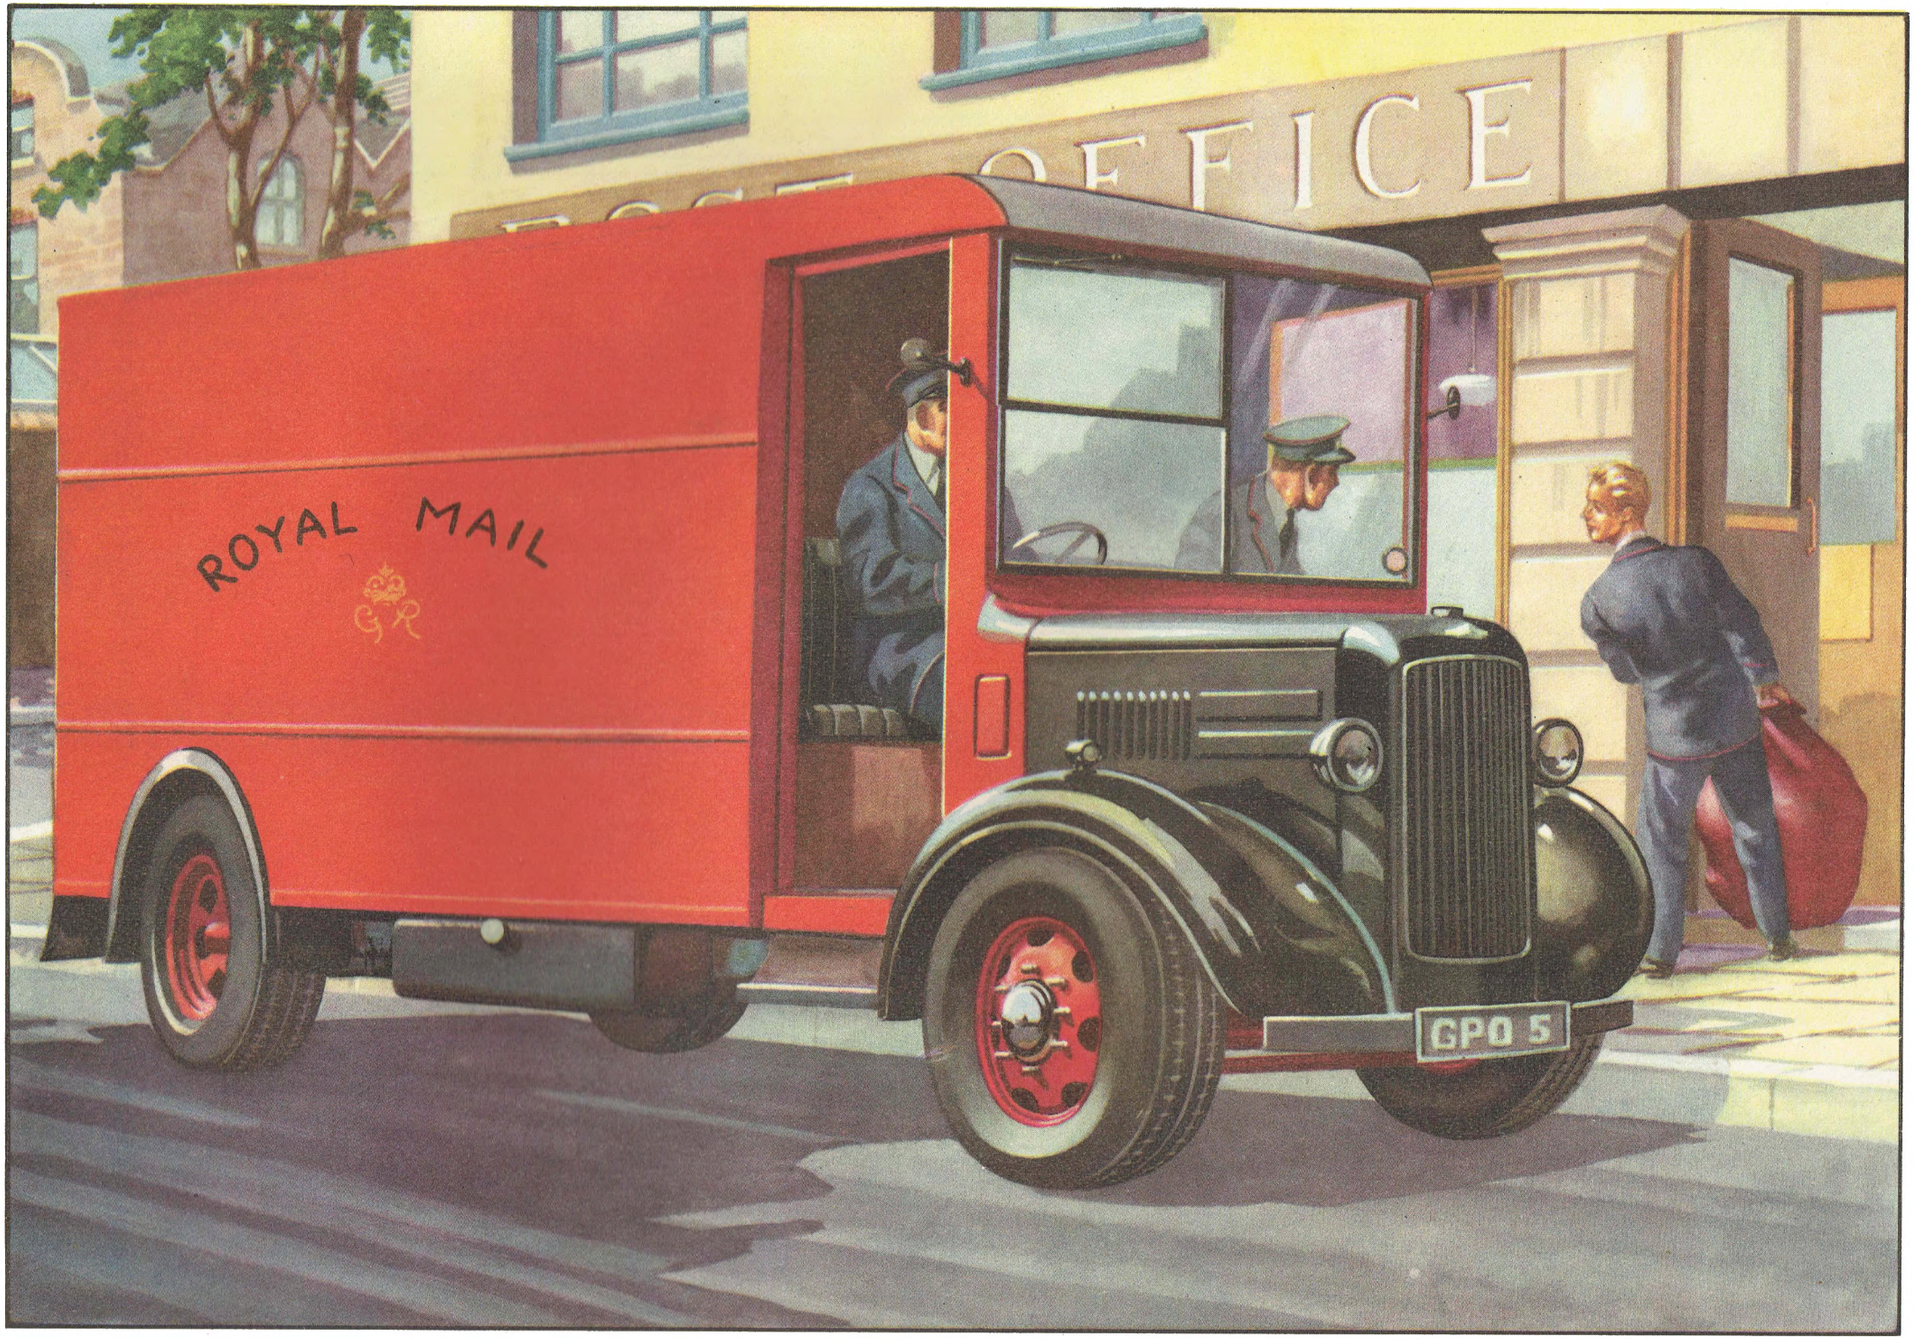
Here is an Austin painted blue,
That's built for speed and comfort too.



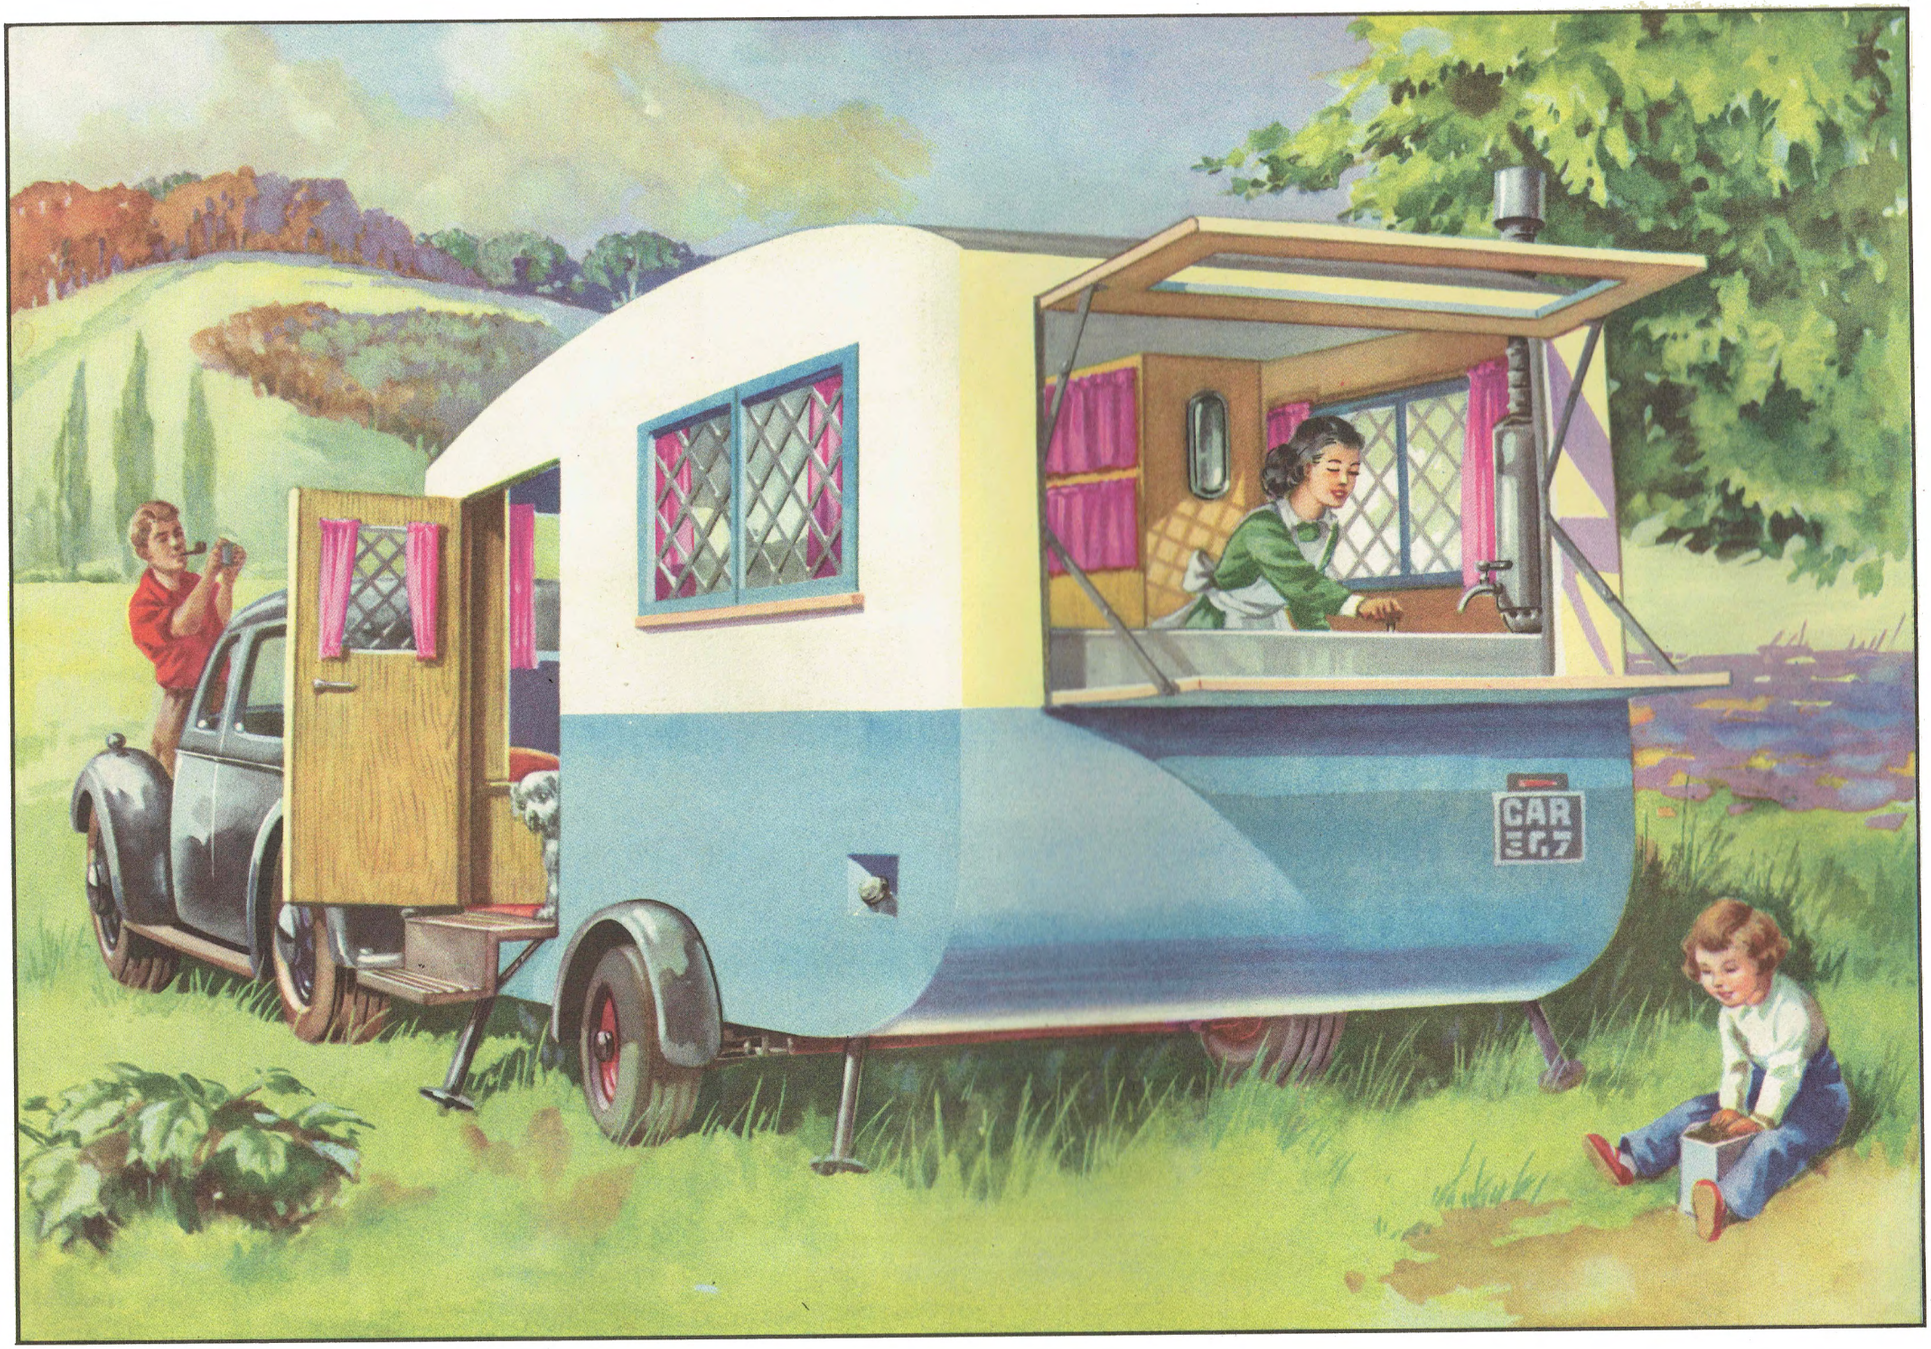
Driving in this Riley saloon,
In rain or shine you'll get there soon.



Changing the gears, Daddy drives away
In his fine Ford, for a busy day.

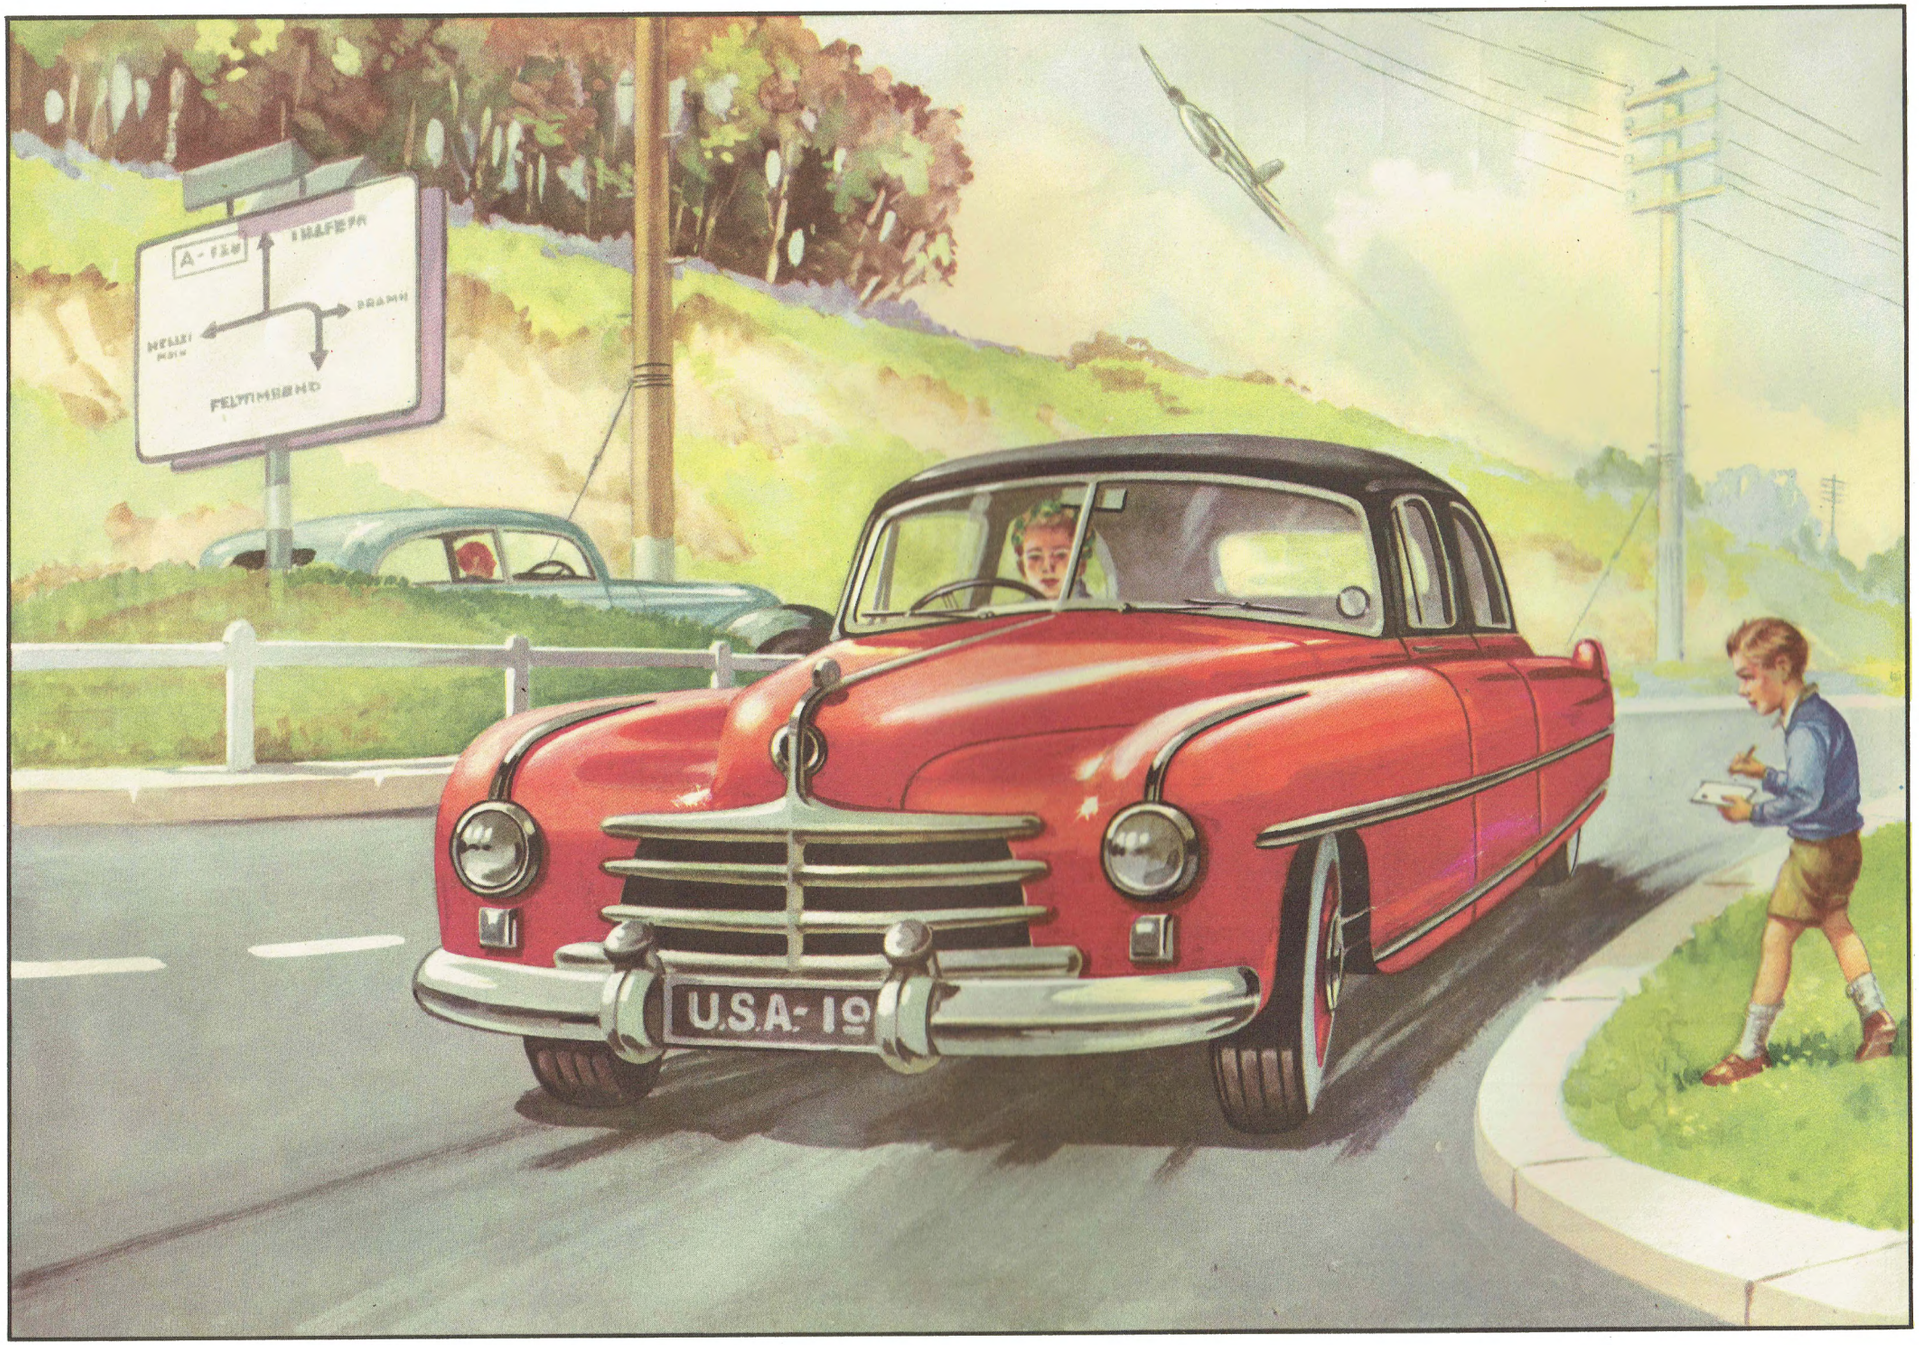


In its scarlet coat, the first Mail Van,
Takes as many mailbags as it can.



Cosy inside this home on wheels,
Mother prepares the family meals.

The driver must know the Highway Code,
When he drives his bus along the road.



Along the by-pass, round the bend,
We speed along to journey's end.
